Offense charged:

Conspiracy; Exported From the U.S. to Iran Goods and Technology without Required
Authorization from the Secretary of the United States Department of Treasury; Forfeiture

Date of Detention Hearing: Initial Appearance, December 17, 2007.

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

(1) Defendant is reportedly a citizen of Iran, residing and working in Vancouver, British Columbia. An immigration detainer has been filed. The issue of detention in this case is therefore essentially moot, as the defendant would be released to immigration custody if not detained in this case. He has not been interviewed by Pretrial Services, and no additional background information is available at this time.

(2) There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

(2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;

(3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and

(4) The clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States

01 Pretrial Services Officer.

02 DATED this 18th day of December, 2007.
